NOTE: If the same player is expected to be removed from both an offensive and defensive position, the player must listed on two separate lines and counted as two players.

When a team reaches an 18-point lead the Head coach of the trailing team will submit to his metro Rep a list of players from the leading team, in which he would like, removed from the game. These rules will also apply to special teams.

The list will not exceed eight (8) players. Note: If requested that a certain player be removed from (for example) the Offense and the same player is to be removed from the Defense the jersey number MUST be listed twice (2x) and counted as two players on the list of eight.

If the deficit falls below 18 points the players identified on the list may return to the game. If the deficit returns to 18 points the listed players must be once again removed. The leading coach is expected to do this on his own and the Metro rep should not need to tell him this. No changes will be made to the list once it has been submitted to the leading team.

Only when a team has less than 19 players may they move “Listed: players to another position. Under NO circumstance may a player be moved to a similar position. I.e. halfback to quarterback, or linebacker to Defensive Line or Linebacker to defensive back. SEE FORM ABOVE
